2012 San Marcos Marriage Retreat

Why Should You Come?

God intended that marriage be one of the greatest blessings we could enjoy on this earth. And yet, it seems that we get news, almost daily, that confirms the fact that many marriages are struggling or already in a critical condition. How can we have a healthy marriage and avoid the pitfalls that have created a crisis in so many relationships?

That is the very goal of these retreats. If you come prepared in body, mind, & heart you will leave with the tools for a more fulfilling marriage. You will have an opportunity to relax with your spouse, renew for your spouse, and recognize new things about your spouse.

Please come join us.
